Leadership and management

Management of people
Motivation and leadership: leadership styles

A revision lesson. Pupils run a car dealership in firms of four and revise leadership and management on their own deals. Seat each firm together. Each firm answers the topic tasks together.

Topic tasks

Each firm gets its own figures. The method is the same. Your Live screen shows each task and every firm's answer.

1 Manage or lead?

Round 1

Your manager plans the staff rota, sets the budgets and checks the results each week.

Is this mainly management or leadership?

- A Management: planning and control
- B Neither: it is just admin
- C Leadership: setting a vision
- D Leadership: inspiring staff

ANSWER

✓ Management: planning and control

Why: Planning, organising and controlling are management; leaders set direction.

2 Autocratic effects

Round 1

A manager decides everything alone and gives orders.

Which two effects are most likely over time?

- A Fast decisions in a crisis
- B Staff feel more involved
- C Skilled staff feel undervalued
- D Decisions take longer
- E Staff gain more responsibility

ANSWER

✓ Fast decisions in a crisis
✓ Skilled staff feel undervalued

Why: Deciding alone is quick, but skilled staff want a say.

3 Styles by staff say

Round 2

Four leadership styles.

Order them by how much staff decide, least first?

- A Democratic
- B Autocratic
- C Laissez-faire
- D Paternalistic

ANSWER

1. Autocratic
2. Paternalistic
3. Democratic
4. Laissez-faire

Why: Paternalistic leaders still decide, but explain and consult more than autocrats.

Topic tasks

4 Error rate rise

Round 2

A new laissez-faire manager took over.

Rise in the error rate, as a %?

Deals a month	200 deals
Pricing errors before	16 errors
Pricing errors now	24 errors

50%

(24 − 16) ÷ 16 × 100 = 50%

Why: Little direction suits skilled staff; here errors rose by 50%.

5 New team, deadline

Round 3

A new, untrained team must deliver a big fleet order by Friday.

Which approach fits, and why?

A Let the team decide how

B Clear instructions from the manager

ANSWER

✓ Clear instructions from the manager

Why: Untrained staff and little time need clear direction.

6 Laissez-faire risk

Round 3

A laissez-faire manager runs a team of new trainees. Errors and complaints rise.

What best explains the problem?

A Decisions are too centralised

B Staff have too little freedom

C The manager is too controlling

D Trainees lack the skill to work alone

ANSWER

✓ Trainees lack the skill to work alone

Why: Laissez-faire suits skilled, motivated staff; trainees need direction.

Final questions

Each pupil answers 6 final questions on leadership and management. They come from these 8 questions.

Then each pupil writes one short answer: “Evaluate laissez-faire leadership for your sales team.”

1. A dealer says managers welcome challenge, but staff say every failed decision is punished. Which cultural effect is most likely?
   ✔ Staff stop raising risks or new ideas

2. A safety incident at a branch needs immediate coordinated action. Why might a usually participative leader become more directive for now?
   ✔ Urgent risk needs fast, clear decisions

3. A workshop foreman decides every job allocation himself and tells technicians exactly how to do each task. Which leadership style is this?
   ✔ Autocratic

4. Before changing opening hours, a sales manager asks the team for views and lets them vote. Which leadership style is this?
   ✔ Democratic

5. Experienced technicians set their own hours and methods; the manager steps in only when asked. Which leadership style is this?
   ✔ Laissez-faire

6. A brake fault is found on cars in the showroom. Why might an autocratic style suit the next hour?
   ✔ Fast, clear instructions are needed

7. An owner decides everything herself but explains each decision and looks after staff welfare. Which leadership style is this?
   ✔ Paternalistic

8. What is a main drawback of democratic leadership in a busy dealership?
   ✔ Decisions can take longer
