Topic tasks

Each firm gets its own figures. The method is the same.

1 Profit from the ad

Round 1

An advert for these cars.

Profit from the advert? Minus allowed.

The advert costs	£1,500
Extra sales from it	5 cars
Margin per car	£1,400

ANSWER

£5,500

5 × £1,400 − £1,500 = £5,500

Why: 5 extra cars bring £7,000 for a £1,500 advert.

2 Was the ad worth it

Round 1

You ran a local radio advert last month.

Which two show it was worth the cost?

A The advert won an award
B It cost less than last year's
C More people heard it
D Extra profit above its cost
E Sales it brought from new buyers

ANSWER

✓ Extra profit above its cost
✓ Sales it brought from new buyers

Why: An advert pays when its extra sales earn more than it cost.

3 Rank cost per sale

Round 2

Three adverts: what each cost, and the sales it brought.

Order by cost per sale, cheapest first?

A Paper: £600, 4 sales
B Radio: £1,500, 6 sales
C Social: £800, 8 sales

ANSWER

1. Social: £800, 8 sales
2. Paper: £600, 4 sales
3. Radio: £1,500, 6 sales

Why: Cost ÷ sales: £100, £150, £250. The cheapest advert is not the best value.

Topic tasks

4 More profitable ad

Round 2

Pick one of two adverts.

Profit from the more profitable advert?

Radio advert, 4 extra cars	£3,000
Social advert, 5 extra cars	£1,500
Margin per car	£1,900

ANSWER

£8,000

Radio £4,600, social £8,000: £8,000

Why: The cheaper advert is not always the better one.

5 TV or trade paper

Round 3

A TV advert reaches 50,000 people for £2,000. A trade paper reaches 5,000 local car buyers for £800.

Which advert should you pick, and why?

A The TV advert

B The trade paper

ANSWER

✔ The trade paper

Why: The paper reaches the people who buy from you, at less cost.

6 Which advert pays

Round 3

Pick one of two adverts.

Profit from the more profitable advert?

Radio advert, 24 enquiries	£1,250
Social advert, 20 enquiries	£2,250
Enquiries that buy	NaN el
Margin per car	£1,800

£9,550

Radio 6 × £1,800 − £1,250 = £9,550; social £6,750

Why: Enquiries are not sales: count the cars that sell.

Final questions

Each pupil answers 6 final questions on promotion. They come from these 12 questions.

1 A small dealer wants to reach nearby customers who are actively searching online for a used car. Which promotional choice is most precisely targeted?

✔ A local search advert linked to live vehicle stock

2 Which is a sales promotion rather than long-term advertising?

✔ A two-week free MOT offer

3 Does an online advert send people to the booking page? Which measure is most direct?

✔ The number of advert clicks to the page

4 The Sales lead organises a road-safety event that earns unpaid local-news coverage. Which promotional method is this?

✔ Public relations (PR)

5 The Sales lead promotes a specialist wheelchair-accessible vehicle to a narrow professional and user audience. Which channel is most suitable?

✔ Targeted mobility trade and community channels used by that audience

6 Promotion tells customers what a business sells and persuades them to buy. A dealer wants local trades who do not know it to learn it services vans. Which suits best?

✔ An advert in a local trade magazine van operators read

7 A small used-car dealer wants to reach local buyers cheaply. Which promotion method fits best?

✔ Posts and adverts on local social media

8 A dealer offers £200 off any car bought this weekend. Which type of promotion is this?

✔ A sales promotion

9 Why might a dealer advertise on a local radio station rather than on national television?

✔ It reaches the local target market at lower cost

10 Which of these is a sales promotion for a car dealer?

✔ A free first service with every car sold

11 A small used-car dealer wants to reach buyers in its own town on a small budget. Which advertising method suits it best?

✔ Local social media adverts

Final questions

12 What is the main aim of a dealer’s promotion?

✔ To tell customers about its cars and persuade them to buy
