B2B deal · Rounds 2 and 3

One firm sells a lot of 3 cars to another firm (4 in Round 3). With an odd number of firms, two firms offer to sell and the lower price wins.

Topic tasks

Each firm gets its own figures. The method is the same for every firm.

Task 1

You need a new sales manager. No one in the firm has ever managed a team.

Which method fits best, and why?

PICK ONE

- ✔ External: brings the skills needed
- ○ Induction: train someone on day one
- ○ Internal: quicker and cheaper
- ○ Internal: they know the firm

Why: No one inside has the skills, so recruiting externally fits best.

You fill a sales manager job by promoting your best salesperson.

Which two are benefits of this?

PICK TWO

- ○ A wider choice of people
- ○ Brings new ideas from outside
- ✔ Cheaper than advertising the job
- ○ Leaves no job to fill
- ✔ They already know the firm

Why: Internal recruitment is quick, cheap and known, but brings no new ideas.

You recruit a new technician.

Put the steps in order, first to last?

PUT THESE IN ORDER, FIRST TO LAST · RIGHT ORDER

1. Write the job description
2. Write the person specification
3. Advertise the job
4. Interview the shortlist

Why: The job first, then the person it needs, then the advert and the interviews.

You recruit one new salesperson.

Cost of filling the job?

WORK OUT THE NUMBER, THEN PICK IT · EXAMPLE FIGURES

Job advert	£800
Two managers interview, each	£180
Induction training	2 days
New worker's pay a day	£100

METHOD

Cost = advert + interviews + training days × pay a day

£800 + 2 × £180 + 2 × £100 = £1,360

Why: Every leaver costs the advert, the interviews and the training again.

Task 5

A new technician must learn your firm's own booking system fast.

Which training fits, and why?

PICK A OR B AND GIVE A REASON

- ○ A week-long college course
- ✔ On the job, with a skilled worker

Why: A college does not teach your own system; a colleague can, at once.

New staff leave in their first month. They say no one showed them how the firm works.

Which change will most likely help?

PICK ONE

- ✔ Better induction training
- ○ College courses next year
- ○ Higher starting pay
- ○ Recruiting from outside

Why: Induction introduces new staff to the firm, its people and its rules.

Final questions

questions for each pupil

159
Level 2 Business questions

8
of them on effective recruitment and training

The game draws 6 questions on this topic.

1 What is the main purpose of a job description?
To set out the duties and responsibilities of a job.

2 Which example is on-the-job training?
A new technician learns a procedure while supervised at work.

3 A dealer advertises a team-leader vacancy only to current employees. What is one likely advantage?
Its staff are known and promotion motivates.

4 A workshop needs a specialist EV technician but nobody currently has the qualification. Why use external recruitment?
It can bring the missing skill into the business.

5 Why should a newly hired technician receive induction training?
To learn safety rules and procedures.

6 The only EV technician is unexpectedly absent for two weeks. Which preparation would have reduced this risk?
Training a second employee in EV work.

7 New diagnostic software goes live next month. Which training plan best limits errors and downtime?
Practical supplier-led training plus a competency check before independent use.

Final questions

8 On-the-job training happens during real work; off-the-job happens away from it. Two technicians go on a week-long manufacturer course. Which is it, and the main drawback?

Off-the-job; the workshop is two technicians short for a week.
